In addition, as has been previously announced, Senator Goschka recently secured a plum post as Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee Higher Education Budget. According to Senator Goschka, “I am elated to begin this term as Chairman of a budget that impacts so many young people in our state. I intend to work as hard as I possibly can on behalf of the public universities and independent colleges in continuing the proud tradition of excellence in Higher Education in the state of Michigan.”

The Michigan Senate will convene for session Tuesday, January 21, 2003.
